Milwaukee Symphony

The Milwaukee Symphony returns to the Blue Lake Public Radio schedule with 13 Tuesday evening concerts beginning on August 2nd with Beethoven's great Choral Symphony No. 9. Also on the schedule is an entire evening of Rachmaninoff on August 16th, Grieg's Peer Gynt Suite on the 23rd, and Mahler's Symphony of a Thousand on the 30th. Later, it's Beethoven's Piano Concerto No. 5 with Garrick Ohlsson, Walton's Violin Concerto with Gil Shaham, and Mahler's Resurrection Symphony No. 2.

Be sure to tune in each Tuesday evening at 8:00.

1. MONDAY12:06pm Exploring Music

"Nadia Boulanger" - "Every town in the United States had a five-and-dime and a Boulanger student," Virgil Thompson once said, and he wasn't far off. Nadia Boulanger taught and influenced an entire generation of musicians, from Aaron Copland and Ástor Piazzolla to Philip Glass and Quincy Jones, and this week we'll hear some of her compositions and performances alongside those of her prolific students.

6:00pm Riverwalk Jazz

"Lester Leaps In: The President of Tenor Sax" - A birthday celebration for Lester Young. From his childhood days on the tent show circuit to stardom on the swinging bandstands of Kansas City, Vernel Bagneris lends first-person accounts of Lester Young's life. The Jim Cullum Jazz Band along with Harry Allen, Harry 'Sweets' Edison, and Topsy Chapman perform tunes Young made famous with his lyrical playing style.

9:00pm JAZZ On The Side

"Sounds of the City, a New Orleans Celebration" - A timely special broadcast to help the victims of Hurricane Katrina and celebrate the legacy and spirit of the birthplace of jazz. A mini-version of the city's 300-year musical history will be illustrated with rare and classic sides by early jazz greats like Freddie Keppard, Jelly Roll Morton, Sidney Bechet, and of course Louis Armstrong, who also talks about New Orleans funeral parades. From the 50's and 60's you'll hear jazzy R&B by Professor Longhair and Irma Thomas, and a rare cut by clarinetist Pete Fountain.

10:00pm Night Lights

"Returning the Call: More From the Unsung Hardbop Heroes of Chicago" - 1950s/60s hardbop from Windy City musicians Paul Serrano, John Gilmore, John Young and more.
