

Blue Lake Public Radio
Presents
A Fine Arts Tour of Paris
September 18 - 26, 2010

Eight days and seven nights in the incredible city of Paris - The City of Light. You will tour the Louvre, Musée d'Orsay, the Palace and Gardens of Versailles, Sainte-Chappelle, and Notre Dame. Take a luxurious dinner cruise on the Seine and stroll through the Latin Quarter. Enjoy a delightful lunch on the Eiffel Tower. Attend an evening concert. See the Arch de Triumph and shop the Champs de Elysses. This is the tour you've always wanted to take.

Blue Lake Public Radio's General Manager Dave Myers and his wife Kathy will host a group of ten on an intimate tour of the city.

Accommodations will be provided by the Hotel du Plat d'Etain, located in the Marais district, noted for its galleries, fashionable cafes and period architecture. It is within walking distance of the Pompidou Center, the Picasso Museum, and a number of other Paris attractions. The best way to see Paris is by foot, and we will do a good deal of walking.

The tour price of $3,995 per person (hotel double occupancy*) includes:

- Round-trip coach air transportation via Air France from Detroit Metro
- Accommodations for 7 nights at Hotel du Plat d'Etain with breakfast provided
- A Metro pass for transportation within the city
- A Paris Museum Pass with free entrance to over 60 museums and monuments
- Tours of the Louvre, Musée d'Orsay, and the Palace and Gardens of Versailles
- Tickets to an evening concert (to be announced)
- An evening dinner cruise on the Siene
- Lunch on the Eiffel Tower

Participants will provide:

- Transportation to and from Detroit Metro
- Lunch and dinner each day except as noted above

*Single occupancy for the hotel is available for an additional $400.
